

Reflective Parenting Free Workshops

Please Join us for these
FREE workshops
at the
Circle Pines Library,
100 Civic Heights Circle,
Circle Pines 55014

- ◆ Friends or Foes?
Tired of the Sibling Rivalry?
Help Your Children Get Along
Saturday, February 25th,
10:30—11:30 a.m.
- ◆ Seven Essential Life Skills:
All Children Need
Based on the Book
“Mind in the Making”
Saturday, March 24th,
10:30-11:30 a.m.
- ◆ Fantastic Families:
What do Strong, Happy
Families Do to Be That Way?
Learn 10 Tips Your Family
Can Implement to Strengthen Family Ties.
Saturday, April 21st
10:30-11:30

Sponsored by Love To Grow On
Child Development Centers
Questions? Call 763-792-4428

Reflective Parenting Workshops are designed to encourage and support families in their parenting journey. These workshops are packed with helpful information and tips on topics all parents face: Topics such as how to help your siblings get along; how to strengthen your family; and identifying seven life skills that will help children reach their full potential in school, the workforce – and in life.

Please see the workshop schedule on the left.

Hope to See You There!